

Red Desert Roundup Rodeo, Inc.

A Non-Profit Corporation

Mini Bulls - Rules

Entries are call-in ONLY. There are two nights designated for calling in to enter. DO NOT leave a message as this is a first-come entry and we will not be checking voicemail for entries. Entries will be taken for three (3) divisions, these will be based on age and skill level. There will be up to five (5) riders in each division. We will sign up alternate contestants to ride (in the event of draw outs or payments not made). Alternates: you must fill out your paperwork and send your payment as if you are going to ride--when the draw is posted and you are not given a slot, your entry will be returned in FULL.

All riders will need to provide their own protective gear. Mandatory Gear: helmet, vest & mouthpiece.

Riders must provide own equipment for this event (i.e. ropes, chaps, boots, helmet, vest, mouthpiece, and spurs.) Red Desert Roundup Rodeo will NOT have equipment available for bull riding.

Contestant must ride for eight (8) seconds. All rides will be timed. Rides not lasting eight (8) seconds will not be given a score. Award will be given based on scored rides only. If there are no scored rides, prize money will be split between all riders equally. Time will start when the animal crosses the plane of the chute gate.

Judges will score each qualified ride. No negotiations over scores will be allowed. No score will be changed once given.

Entry: $90.00

Weight Limit: 125 pounds or less

Payout in each division: 1st Place -$125 each night

Overall Points (3 nights) - Buckle

Draw results will be posted no later than Monday July 24, 2017 on the Red Desert Roundup Rodeo Website (www.rdrrodeo.com). It is the responsibility of the rider to know which performance he/she is competing in. NO refunds will be given for missing a performance.
